About Deborah Sosin, author of Charlotte and the Quiet Place

Deborah Sosin, LICSW, MFA, is a writer and clinical social worker specializing in mindfulness. A native of Rye, New York, Debbie lived in Munich, Germany, as a teenager. Her essays have appeared in the Boston Globe Magazine, Writer’s Chronicle, the Chicken Soup for the Soul series, on Salon, and in numerous other publications. Debbie has worked with children in various capacities—as a therapist, Montessori educator, and volunteer with the Newton (Mass.) Child Assault Prevention Program. She teaches at GrubStreet in Boston and offers private coaching and manuscript consultation. A graduate of the University of Michigan, she earned her MFA from Lesley University and MSW from Smith College School for Social Work. A longtime meditator, Debbie holds an advanced certificate from the Institute for Meditation and Psychotherapy. She lives with her two very quiet cats outside of Boston, Massachusetts. This is her first book.

Abbreviated Bio:
Deborah Sosin, LICSW, MFA, is a writer, GrubStreet instructor, and clinical social worker specializing in mindfulness. Her essays have appeared in the Boston Globe Magazine, Writer’s Chronicle, on Salon, and in numerous other publications. She lives outside of Boston, Massachusetts, with her two very quiet cats.